ITALY.

FLORENCE, November 30.

ON the 5th arrived here from Leghorn, Captains Weſt, Osborne, and Balchen, Commanders of his Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Dartmouth, Saliſbury, and Folkſtone, now at that Place: Theſe Gentlemen have received all poſſible Marks of Diſtinction from the Great Duke's Miniſters, and have been frequently entertained by them; and particularly one Day by M. du Chatelet, Colonel of the Regiment of Guards, at a Place called the Caſcines, about a Mile out of Town, where an Encampment of Eight Hundred Men was formed on Purpoſe; there was a great Entertainment, at which were preſent moſt of the Regency. The Spaniards remain in the Neighbourhood of Bologna, and are extremely diſtreſſed for want of Proviſions: The Magiſtrates of that Place have made freſh Complaints to the Pope, ſhewing the Impoſſibility that State is under to ſupply them; and the Inhabitants are in the utmoſt Conſternation. General Braitwitz is to go in Perſon, and eſtabliſh his Head Quarters with about Four Thouſand Men at Piſtoja, for which Purpoſe moſt of the Troops that remained at Leghorn, are in Motion from thence, leaving only about Sixteen Hundred Men there. The Troops that arrived here ſome Time ago, are preparing to ſet out in a few Days for Piſtoja and the Places about it.

On the 7th the Company of Corſican Volunteers march'd hence to Fortreſs of St. Martino, where the Fortifications are repairing and augmenting.

From Lombardy we are informed by this Poſt, that on the 6th Inſtant the Auſtrians and Sardinian Horſe and ſome Grenadiers, conſiſting of about Nine Thouſand Men, had again repaſſed the Panaro and poſted themſelves at Creſpolano, Cavazzana, Samoggia, St. Giovanni and Lavino, on the Borders of the River Reno, at a ſmall Diſtance from the Enemy; they were to be followed by Marſhal Traun with the reſt of the Army, Artillery, &c. M. de Gage continues to fortify himſelf at the Certoſa, and the Bridge over the Reno, in order to keep that Communication. On the 6th Inſtant the ſaid General made a Repreſentation to the Regency by a Letter, complaining both of the Spaniſh Courier being intercepted on the Borders of Tuſcany, and of the Military Diſpoſitions that are making there.

GERMANY.

Dreſden, December 9. Leuthmeritz has ſurrendered to the Auſtrians, and the Garriſon, conſiſting of 936 Men, is made Priſoners of War, and there was found in the Place 120 Strich of Wheat, (a Bohemian Meaſure, ſomewhat larger than the Engliſh Buſhel) 6750 of Oats, 15,000 of Barley, 750 of Rye, 360 of Rice, 720 of Salt, 5000 Portions of Bread, 40 Oxen, 7 Tuns of Wine, and 200 Truſſes of Hay. We hear alſo that the Detachment which had been ſent to blockade Teuſchen, has found near as great Quantities of Proviſions there as at Leuthmeritz, and General St. Ignon was to go the 30th paſt to Melnick, in order to concert with Prince Lobkowitz the Means of reducing Prague, which they hoped to do ſooner than was at firſt expected; being informed, that the Town is not ſufficiently provided with either Salt, Wood, or Wine for a long Reſiſtance.

We have nothing yet deciſive from Bavaria, tho' Letters from Ratiſbon affirm, that the French have paſſed the Iſer, and re-taken Landau, as alſo Dingelfingen and other Places on that River, which the Auſtrians abandoned in Time and Order, without the leaſt Shew of Reſiſtance; neither did they make any, when the Enemy appeared at Deckendorff; but ſeem'd in great Hopes of defeating Seckendorff, who, by the laſt Accounts, was ſtill at Braunau, and cut off from the French.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, December 2.

His Majeſty's Ship the Lynn, ſail'd thro' the Downs on Tueſday for the Weſt Indies.

Letters by Yeſterday's French Mail mention, that a Spaniſh Privateer cruizing ſome Diſtance off of Malaga, had pick'd ſeveral ſmall Engliſh Veſſels.

They write from Calais of the 10th Inſtant, that the Anna and Katherine, Capt. John Hilligrove, from Bremen for London, was loſt on the 20th paſt near Dunkirk, and all the Men periſh'd. Nothing of the Cargo was ſav'd, except about 15 or 1800 Staves and ſome Papers, which came on Shore. 'Tis ſaid that this Ship was valued at near 200,000 l. Sterling.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, dated Oct. 12.

'Yeſterday came in at the Land Port the Maſter of the 'Veſſel I mentioned to you, to have been taken five or ſix 'Days ago in ſight of this Garriſon; and proves to be Cap'tain Totterſhell of the Eagle, who was loaded with Fiſh 'from Newfoundland. He brings with him 22 Sailors, of 'his own Crew, and thoſe belonging to the John, Captain 'Chriſtopher Betagh, who was taken a few Days ago un'der Apes's Hill, and carried into Cadiz, likewiſe laden 'with Fiſh from the Land. Neither of them made any 'Reſiſtance. Had Totterſhell cut his Hilliards Captain 'Williams in the Rocheſter might have ſav'd him; but 'he apprehended to be ill uſed by the Privateer, and there'would not attempt it.

'This formidable Fleet of Privateers, which block up 'this Place, and reign Maſters of the Gutt, by the Infor'mation I have from Captain Betagh, conſiſts of Four Xa'beques, from 25 to 45 Hands each, and a Barca Longa, 'of Four Carriage Guns, a great many Swivels, and 75 to '80 Hands. They keep their Cruize between Tariffa and 'Ceuta. This may appear a trifling Force, as in Reality 'it is, but ſufficient however, to take 3 or 4 of thoſe Ships 'that paſs backwards and forwards.

'Capt. Betagh tells me that in the Bay of Cadiz there 'was only one Man of War of 60 Guns, which lay as a 'Guardſhip; and that a Veſſel which he calls a Galleon, 'was juſt arrived from the Weſt Indies, but he is able to 'give no farther Account of her.

Extract of a Letter from a Perſon of undoubted Authority, dated St. Sebaſtian's, Nov. 8, 1742.

'Four Privateers that were cruizing from this Place are 'put back here, except one of 40 Guns, which is put into 'St. Andero very leaky; there is one only out from Bil'boa. There is now ſix Privateers of 18 and 20 Guns, 'ready to put to Sea the firſt fair Weather; and Four at 'Bilboa. They ſay here, that this is their Seaſon; as the 'Engliſh Men of War don't venture into the Bay at this 'Time of the Year. They cruize moſtly off Cape Clear, 'and in the Stream of Uſhant.

London, December 4. We hear that Two Regiments of Dragoons, and Four of Foot, will be rais'd with all Expedition, and that all the Regiments of Marines are ordered to be fill'd up.

Some Clerks have been lately cloſely employ'd in copying out Inſtructions to inſtruct their Conſtituents to do what they have already done, and give a Sanction to their Proceedings. To what low Artifices are ſome Men reduced to gloſs over their Conduct!

We

We hear the Earl of O-----d has had a great Levee, and Congratulation on an extraordinary Occasion.

AMERICA.

PHILADELPHIA, December 23.

Last Friday arrived here Captain Mackey from Jamaica, by whom we have the following Articles, viz. That on the 27th of October, Admiral Vernon on board the Boyne an 80-Gun ship set sail for Great-Britain, and on the 30th following, General Wentworth in the Defiance a 60-Gun ship also, leaving behind them 7 ships of the Line, most of which had their Yards and Top-masts struck. That the American Regiments are discharg'd, but are to be in Pay until the 25th of March. That about 200 Soldiers have settled on the Island of Ratan near the Bay of Honduras, which has proved so healthful, that but two Persons have died since they arrived there, one of which was Mr. George Bar, who went an Ensign from this City. That the French had sent a Sloop to the Admiral, the Captain of which demanded in a very insolent manner, the Reason of his condemning some ships that had been taken, telling the Admiral that if he would not give a speedy Answer, there were some French Men of War would soon come and know the Reason. Upon which the Admiral detained the Capt. and Vessel until the French Men of War should come on that Errand. The Admiral had Advice that three Spanish Men of War was at St. Jago de Cuba, he order'd four Men of War, to go in quest of them who went and look'd into that Harbour, but the Birds were flown. The said Capt. Mackey further informs, that he in his Voyage here, was chased coming thro' the Gulf for three Days by a Ship supposed to be a Spaniard, but finding he could not come up with him he steer'd his Course for Augustine.

PHILADELPHIA, January 18.

Last Saturday a Man came to this City from the Irish Settlement, the back parts of Virginia, and brings an Account, that there was three Men, that appeared to be Traders, found shot dead in the Road, and that about 3 Weeks since a Company of Indians 30 in Number, came down Susquahannah and took Cannoes from Harris's Ferry, and went to the above Irish Settlement, and killed the People's Cattle and Horses; whereupon three Companies two of 31 and one of 28 Men, went in Pursuit of the Indians to know the Reason of their acting in such a Manner. The Company of 28 Men came up with them, and the Captain ask'd the Indians whether they were for War or Peace, they answer'd for Peace; he then ask'd them the Reason of killing the Cattle, &c. they answer'd the People would not give them any Victuals, upon that the Capt told them, if they'd kill no more than they eat he would not blame them: After this Discourse went towards his Men as if he intended to give them some Orders, when the Indians fired upon them and killed him and seven of his men, they immediately return'd the Fire and kill'd 11 of the Indians and took 17 of them Prisoners, but the other two made their Escape and went back over Harris's Ferry.
